

Required Inequalities

This Goal centers on the objective of lessening inequality, emphasizing the importance of addressing disparities in income and various social factors within and among countries. These factors encompass age, gender, disability, race, ethnicity, origin, religion, and economic status within nations. Career and Communication department of ATMU organizes various similar seminars on these factors.