

Partnerships for The Goals

ATMU is actively engaged, both directly and indirectly, in shaping SDG policies and facilitating their implementation processes. The university organizes session on "The Role of Sustainable Development Goals in Career" was held at Azerbaijan Tourism and Management University (ATMU). Representatives of AIESEC Azerbaijan organization participated in the event organized by the Career and Communication Department of the University. According to the agenda, the trainers first explained the main goal of the organization, exchange programs of AIESEC, the importance of SDGs, building a career according to SDGs, the field of tourism, sustainable tourism, small workshops, etc. It was brought to the students' attention that participation in various international projects means revealing skills in leadership, sales, marketing, project management, finance, and human resources.

https://unikal.az/news/371242/atmu-da-tedbir-kecirildi-fotolar